the moderation of the German peace terms," said the General Anzecker of Dusseldorf, Germany, quoting in a recent dispatch from Berlin a statement given out to foreign correspondents at Berlin.

For several months a controversy has been in progress in Germany as to the aims of the war. The Socialists, vigorously opposed by the Pan-Germans, are urging a clear statement of German aims to the world.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

AMSTERDAM, May 1.—The first May day strike in that section of Belgium held by the Germans is reported from Mons, the heart of the Belgian coal fields. The Echo de Belgique announced today the miners at Mons have struck as a protest against the food shortage.

INTERNAL STRIFE

BY UNITED PRESS.

LONDON, May 1.—A drama of internal strife may be in progress in Germany today, but thick curtains of Teutonic censorship intervened to hide denouements from the world at large.

May day, date of Socialist labor and internationalist celebrations, was to be marked by a twenty-four-hour general strike in all industries according to plans laid by certain groups in Germany several weeks ago. In many sections of the Kaiser's land, however, the general strike would simply be a continuation of similar stoppage of work which has been in force since April 15.

Within the past few days it was noted by neutrals like Holland, Denmark and Switzerland that the German censorship had suddenly tightened. The prohibition by the censors even included German newspapers. Moreover, German citizens were unable to obtain passports permitting them to leave Germany.

PLANTS TIED UP

In the face of these elaborate precautions to guard against seepage of news of Germany's internal situation, all sorts of sensational rumors gained circulation here today and appeared certain from the existence of various rumors that the twenty-four-hour general strike had been successful in tying up in part at least of a number of Germany's great steel plants and possibly likewise some munitions works.

The Daily Mail today quoted from a recent issue of the Cologne Volks Zeitung, declaring that Socialists had advised the German government they would be unable to promise order after May day.

Other despatches reaching here via Holland declared the German government had been desperately striving by special raising of food regulations, permitting and more and more bread, to be distributed to workers to prevent strikes in all war industries.

This is Europe's critical day. Socialists and workmen are holding May day demonstrations in virtually all of the capitals and principal cities. Widespread trouble was feared before the day was over despite the military precautions of the various governments.

In Germany and Austria-Hungary, where the labor situation is acute, radical Socialists and discontented toilers threaten to bring about a general strike and make manifestations in favor of an immediate peace.

The Daily Mail's Hague correspondent ascribes to the Koelnische Volks Zeitung the statement that the Socialist leaders have announced that they are unable to take responsibility for the maintenance of peace and order in Germany after May day.

As a result of recent strikes among the German workers in the war industries considerable concessions in foodstuffs have been granted, according to a despatch to the Daily News from Rotterdam. The meat ration has been raised by a half pound.

Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, quoting Berlin advices, says Dr. Georg Michaelis, president of the Prussian food commission, told the food committee of the Reichstag that it could be expected that the present bread ration will be maintained until the next harvest. Adolph von Batocki, president of the food regulation board, told the committee the condition of the crops was good and there need be no anxiety concerning them.

Germany, Chile IN SECRET PACT?

BUENOS AIRES, May 1.—Germany and Chile negotiated a secret treaty guaranteeing Germany a foothold in South America in 1913, when Prince Henry of Prussia visited Chile, according to an article published in Revista today by Jose Molins, one of the foremost authorities on South American relations.

Molins declared Chile was thus powerless to sympathize with the United States or with Brazil, because of this pact.

According to Revista's article the second agreement between Chile and Germany guaranteed German influence in South America, "regardless of future developments." In return Chile was pledged German aid in maintaining her supremacy in western South America—including an ambitious plan for Chile, ultimately, to seize Patagonia from Argentina.

"Chile is powerless to express her views with the United States, lest Germany reveal this treaty," declared Molins in conclusion.

FIREBUGS RAZE RACE TRACK; 14 HORSES PERISH

BALTIMORE, Md., May 1.—Fourteen racehorses were burned to death, thirty-two stables were razed and a large part of the equipment of the Pimlico race-track was threatened with destruction by fire early today. It is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Fellowship of horseracing here are convinced today that mysterious fires at the Belmont and Pimlico race-tracks are part of a plot to ruin racing in the East this year.

A fire of incendiary nature occurred at Belmont Park April 7 and April 23. The first Belmont fire destroyed the main grandstand, while the fire on April 23 destroyed a stable and twenty-eight thoroughbred horses, valued at $100,000.

Rewards aggregating $10,000 are offered for the apprehension of persons responsible for the Belmont Park fires.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The French commission argument urging that troops, possibly millions, be sent within six weeks to the European battlefields is having its effect at the White House, it was generally believed today.

Officials still are canny when the subject is mentioned. Some are known, however, strongly to favor the plan, while others are now only passively, where once they were actively opposed to it.

In Congress the idea is spreading fast and it is expected to continue rapidly during the next week as it has developed during the past few days congressional pressure may force the plan into operation.

The question of sending troops to Europe quickly remains the biggest problem yet to be settled.

That it will be settled within a day or two and announcement made as soon as practicable, is taken for granted. One of the blocks that must be removed, however, is final enactment into law of the selective conscription measure. Once that is done, progress on the troops-to-Europe matter will be definitely settled.

MILITARY OPPOSITION.

Perhaps the strongest opposition to the plan of sending troops immediately is found among some high military men, who hold to their belief that America should first complete her military organization before detaching even small units for service abroad.

These men are said to feel, however, that if the French really want the American flag and American soldiers on their fighting front, for sentimental and moral reasons, they might be turned to that view. Others are even said to be inclining more and more to French arguments that Americans who might be sent immediately to instruction camps behind the lines and in sound of the guns, would be worth more than Americans trained for six months or more in this country and then sent to the battlefields.

The French argument is that such men would have to stand from five to seven weeks of battlefield training even then.

MAY SEND N. Y. MILITIA.

There were surface indications today that plans are already afoot to get certain militia regiments ready to start for the front very shortly.

New York National Guard units are the first to go. Governor Whitman was summoned to Washington for a conference with the administration on unstated subjects today.

The question of troops, it is believed, and possibly the Irish question, were discussed by British Foreign Secretary Balfour and President Wilson at two lengthy conferences.

Plans were completed today for the French mission to leave Thursday for a tour of American cities, including Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Springfield, Ill., Philadelphia, New York, Boston, to be visited in the order named. The mission will return to Washington and continue its labors.

The Cuban war commission will be received today by Secretary Lansing and probably by President Wilson. Minister Cespedes will present them. Conferences with Secretaries Baker and Daniels will follow.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Hamburg-American liners Ptolema, Pola and Clara Mennig at New York have been turned over by the American government for use of the entente allies. One ship will go to France and the other to Italy.

PRODUCING OILS

AMSTERDAM (via London), May 1.—Private advices received in Holland by persons largely interested in Rumanian oil fields assert that oil production in Rumania is being resumed at the rate of about forty carloads a day, as compared to 123 carloads in 1914. The operating companies, which are run by Austro-German capital, enjoy preferential treatment.

It is reported here that a big underground association is forming in Hamburg. It will be run on lines similar to those of the London members will deposit 100,000 marks and will be liable to the extent of their entire fortunes.

FARMERS FAVOR FIXING OF PRICES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Governor Frazier of North Dakota told the Senate agriculture committee today he believed the farmers of his State would not object to minimum price fixing for food products.

"We have had prices set for years by the gamblers in the market," said the governor, "and there is no reason they should not be set by Congress."

"The farmer," Governor Frazier said, "has produced less in the last few years because he has not been getting a living wage and he has often sold his product at a loss."

Preventing speculation, he said, was not easy, but he believed Congress might do it.

"From the consumer to the producer, there is no reason why a car of wheat, should pass through four or five hands from the farmer to the miller, and a car of flour through four or five from the miller to the consumer."

The governor agreed with Senator Wadsworth that there should be some agency to create a market for the farmer and with Senator Kenyon that it might be possible to declare it a crime for any person to buy food products to hold "for an unreasonable profit."

Do you think the Chicago board of trade ever did anybody any good? asked Senator Kenyon.

"Sometimes it has and sometimes it has not," replied the governor.

MAIL IS MOIST

How the Germans "censor" mail sent from the United States to the British Isles by the simple expedient of sending it to the sea-bottom along with the mail ship, via the torpedo route, is shown in still another sea-water damaged letter which has reached Oakland. The letter was sent February 27 by C. C. Brower of 581 Eighth street to his aunt, Miss Kate Mann, No. 3 Governor Kenyon street, Kent, England. Somewhere in the Atlantic a German submarine torpedoed and sank the mail ship. Brower's letter was found by a patrol ship along with other mail floating near the scene of the torpedoing and was forwarded to its destination although almost illegible through damage by water. Miss Mann returned it to Brower as a curiosity.

The custom will be continued each year on the anniversary of the Manila victory, so long as Mrs. Dewey lives.

NO SLOUCH IN UNCLE SAM'S ARMY

NEW YORK, May 1.—"Military bearing is to a soldier what beauty is to a woman. The slothful slouch does not go with the olive drab."

In an editorial entitled "Real Soldiers," Spectator, the Columbia students' daily, laid down for the thousand members of the university's military unit admonitions which are of more than passing interest.

"The men have it over the fair sex," the editorial says, "because the most unlikely rookie can acquire a solid military appearance by observing a few simple rules. Some of these may be of interest to a large number of the Columbia men who appear to be ill at ease in the uniforms and only accentuate their conspicuousness by being half civilians and half soldiers."

"Army regulations do not allow a mixed uniform. One's department, also, while in uniform, should be entirely military. In greeting a civilian, as well as military officer, the salute is correct. It should be used. When in doubt, salute is the army rule."

"One's carriage is almost part of the military uniform. One need not be self-conscious or stiff, but he should always keep his head up and pull his chin in and never scuff his feet, the last named sin being one of the worst in the decalogues of the military."

"For the sake of his general appearance one should remember that there is only one way to wear a uniform. The touches of individuality and nonchalance must be sacrificed. Buttons should be buttoned all the way up and down when one appears on the campus or the street. All pockets should be buttoned and loose strings everywhere tucked in. The hats, of course, should be worn somewhere near the front rather than at the very back of the head."

HURT IN MISHAP

Unable to control the automobile he was driving down the Tunnel Road today when it picked up unusual speed, I. Shapiro, 825 Sixteenth street, who was in the car with Beliski, also suffered bruises and slight cuts. Both men miraculously escaped broken limbs and internal injuries. The car was badly damaged. The injured men were taken to Fabiola Hospital.

The marine corps has already completed its full authorized strength of 17,400, but both services will continue recruiting campaigns without modification as bills pending in congress are expected to give the navy an authorized total strength of 150,000 and raise the marine corps to 30,000.

For the navy, Portland enlisted 1030 in April.

San Francisco ranked third in March, Spokane was third with 15.4 per cent and Seattle was one of seven cities out of 63 whose enlistments were less than half the quota. It obtained 36.7 per cent of its quota.

The work of obtaining a jury occupied most of the morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Baron Alhard von Dem Busscha Muench, alias Kurt Brunner, who arrived here last Friday from China on the steamer Ecuador, was arrested on a telegraphic warrant from Attorney-General Gregory at Washington this morning as an alien dangerous to the public peace and safety.

Baron Muench is said to be a nephew of Count von Bernstorff. On his arrival here he claimed he was a Swiss. Nevertheless, he was detained at Angel Island. After he was arrested today the United States marshal endeavored to intern him at Fort McDowell, but having refused permission to do so and will attempt to have him confined at the Presidio. The baron is believed to be a German spy.

MARRIAGES IN APRIL BREAK LOCAL RECORD

With the issuance in the month of April of 338 marriage licenses, all previous records in the history of Alameda county have been broken.

"The war must have something to do with it," said Stewart Gem- mell, in charge of the marriage license bureau, today. "Despite the fact that it is well known that the war office has issued a ruling that men who have married since the declaration of war will be considered as unmarried, couples continue in increasing numbers to apply for licenses. However, I have noticed that soon after great national events, such as a Presidential election, the sinking of a liner with great loss of life, or some momentous news from the battlefield in Europe, there is a noticeable increase in the number of applications for marriage licenses.

"And another thing," said Gemmell, unconsciously of the grim humor, "they tell me over at the Emergency hospital that there are always more suicides after big national events or great disasters than at other times. I wish the psychologists would explain it."

RED-BLOODED CHILDREN

If your children lack red blood, build them up with fresh air, nourishing food and Pepto-Mangan, "The Red Blood Builder."

It is easy enough to tell whether your children are red-blooded or not. For you can't hide red blood—or the lack of it. If it is there, you see it plainly mirrored in your little one's rosy cheeks, merry eyes, love of romping and playing, leadership in childhood games and studies. If it is not there, then your children are only ghosts of children—pale, hollow-eyed, stoop-shouldered, hating play, hating study—robbed of every interest in life.

Fortunately, there are ways, within easy reach of every parent, to build up children to whom Nature or disease has denied natural health and vigor. If your young one is sickly, turn him over to the "Red Blood Builder." Let him enjoy the combined benefit of rest, sunlight and fresh air.

Finally, to increase his appetite for the plain, blood-building, flesh-forming foods, give him

Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

Pepto-Mangan feeds the red blood cells with just the elements they need—adding to their number, increasing their power to carry nourishment and life-giving oxygen to every cell and tissue of the little body. Pepto-Mangan is exceedingly pleasant to taste, and easily digested.

Pepto-Mangan is prescribed and recommended by physicians as a general blood tonic and appetizer for all weak, anemic children, nervous, overworked adults, invalids and convalescents. Genuine Pepto-Mangan is sold only in the original bottle and sealed package here illustrated, and always bears the name "Gude." Never sold in bulk, but always in the sealed package to prevent counterfeiting. For sale at all drug stores.

WHIRLWIND RECRUITING IS PLANNED

Details of the whirlwind recruiting campaign to be made by the First Oakland Volunteers to secure volunteers are fast being completed. The plan of the organization includes the sending of a recruiting party to every men's organization, lodge and industrial plant in the city within the next month. Within a few days the personnel of the recruiting squads will be announced.

While men are volunteering for service in the regiment at an average of twenty-five a day, the urgent necessity of recruiting the command to maximum strength in the shortest possible time so that any exigency of the international situation may be met has impressed itself upon Colonel Walter J. Petersen and today orders were given by him to inaugurate the recruiting campaign at once.

Each recruiting party will consist of "women vocalists and a men's chorus for the musical program of patriotic songs and a well-known speaker. The plan of the volunteers, which is to organize two regiments, one of regular men for active service and one of soldier men for home service, will be explained in detail at each meeting.

Organizations which have open dates in the near future and which are desirous of being paid a visit by one of the Oakland Volunteer recruiting parties will expedite the engagement if they will at once communicate with Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen at the City Hall.

Each know of no more valuable and immediate patriotic service for the present," said Colonel Petersen today. "than the organization of this regiment as soon as possible. How soon the Government may need our services we cannot tell, but it seems to me that our plain duty is to be ready."

'INTOLERANCE'S MIGHTY SPECTACLE

While the warriors of ancient Babylon had not the means of wholesale slaughter in vogue today, their warfare could hardly be considered as child's play as is plainly evidenced in D. G. Griffith's masterpiece, "Intolerance," which is the attraction at the Macdonough this week.

In this gigantic spectacle Griffith has refought, faithfully and authentically, the battle waged by Cyrus and his Persian hordes on Babylonian soil. Each and every detail in connection with the life and customs of the people of Babylon, to the minutest detail, up to the time that the victorious Cyrus took the ancient city, is produced by Griffith according to the most authentic records.

In one scene, where the Babylonians high upon the walls of their besieged city, hurl huge rocks on the hordes of Cyrus, a signal was used to permit the Persians to have sufficient time to seek a place of safety. However, one over-enthusiastic Babylonian neglected to give the signal, and the Persians, who were given vent to an extremely modern "look of his mouth" and the protectors on the helmet of Cyrus the Great himself. Cyrus was incapacitated for several hours as a result, and the siege of Babylon was halted until the leader of the Persians had recovered sufficiently to resume the onslaught.

These battle scenes are considered by students of ancient history and archaeology to be some of the really big moments of "Intolerance."

INCREASE CUT OFF

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Proposed increases in rates on canned goods, which were to have gone into effect today from San Francisco on traffic originating here, and Portland and Astoria, Ore., were suspended today by the Interstate Commerce Commission until August 25. The commission also suspended tariffs providing for an increase in the minimum carload weight from 20,000 to 40,000 pounds.

Procedure in the hearings to begin next week on the proposed 15 per cent increase in freight rates were outlined today by the Interstate Commerce Commission as follows:

The present emergency war conditions, and the cost of fuel, material and supplies, recent changes in rates, the reasonableness of the proposed increased rates and application to the mode of the proposed increased rates.

JOKER KILLS BILL

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—The Prendergast vivisection bill over which there was such a furious fight in the assembly, was laughed to death in the senate committee on public health and quarantine. The day before the date set for adjournment, Chairman F. M. Carr called the bill up.

Senator McCowan, the local black-smith-humorist, promptly made a motion that the bill be referred to Senator Kehoe as a committee of one to report May 1. Of course it was known that the legislature would be a thing of the past on May 1, and all members of the committee being thus wise, joined in the joke and the motion carried unanimously. Owing to the wide opposition to the bill the senate committee gave the measure serious consideration.

M'COWAN LOSES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 1.—The district court of appeal here denied the petition of Barclay McCowan of Bakersfield, Cal., for a writ of review involving the proceedings of the Kern county Board of Supervisors at which the date was fixed for the election which resulted in him being recalled April 20 from the office of district attorney. The petition was filed originally with the State Supreme Court but was transferred to the district court. McCowan alleged requirements of the law had not been complied with and that the recall petition was insufficient and void.

HOLD BABY WEEK

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Baby Week begins today throughout the United States. Officials of the Children's Bureau here emphasize the seriousness of its observance. It is not a sentimental outburst, but a widely organized attempt to better the conditions of American child life, they say. They point to the good results of the 1916 Baby Week.

Amateur carpenters, who are working in the work are Federal and State children's bureau, state universities, agricultural colleges, local health officials and boards and the General Federation of Women's Clubs with 2,500,000 members.

CARPENTERS QUIT

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 1.—Serious labor trouble in the Pittsburgh district began today when 4000 carpenters went on strike, their ranks being augmented by 260 lumber laborers. An eleven-hour settlement prevented a strike of 2500 holding engineers. The carpenters are to be paid $5 for a day instead of $3, with double time for overtime.

PASSES CRISIS

STOCKHOLM, via London, May 1.—Abram I. Elkus, the American ambassador in Turkey, who is suffering from typhus fever, passed the crisis on April 28. He now is on a convalescent trip and will be able to travel in a month, according to an official message from Constantinople.

ADVISES A ROPE

NEW YORK, May 1.—Now the Germans are going to get some of the New York lampposts to hang them to. Nearly 5000 old New York iron lampposts have just been sold by the city to R. D. Wood & Co. They will be made into steel and sent to the government munitions factories, where they will be turned into shell casings and shrapnel.

CAMP IS OPENED

FARMINGDALE, L. I., May 1.—On a plot of 100 acres near here the training camp of women living in the New York district opened when an advance regiment arrived to plant the garden, so that when the real encampment begins July 4 there will be fresh vegetables for the girl rookies to eat. Agriculture will be the main study of the camp.

INVITE GUESTS

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Mayor Mitchell and a committee of New Yorkers came here today and invited both the British and French missions to visit that city before returning to Europe.

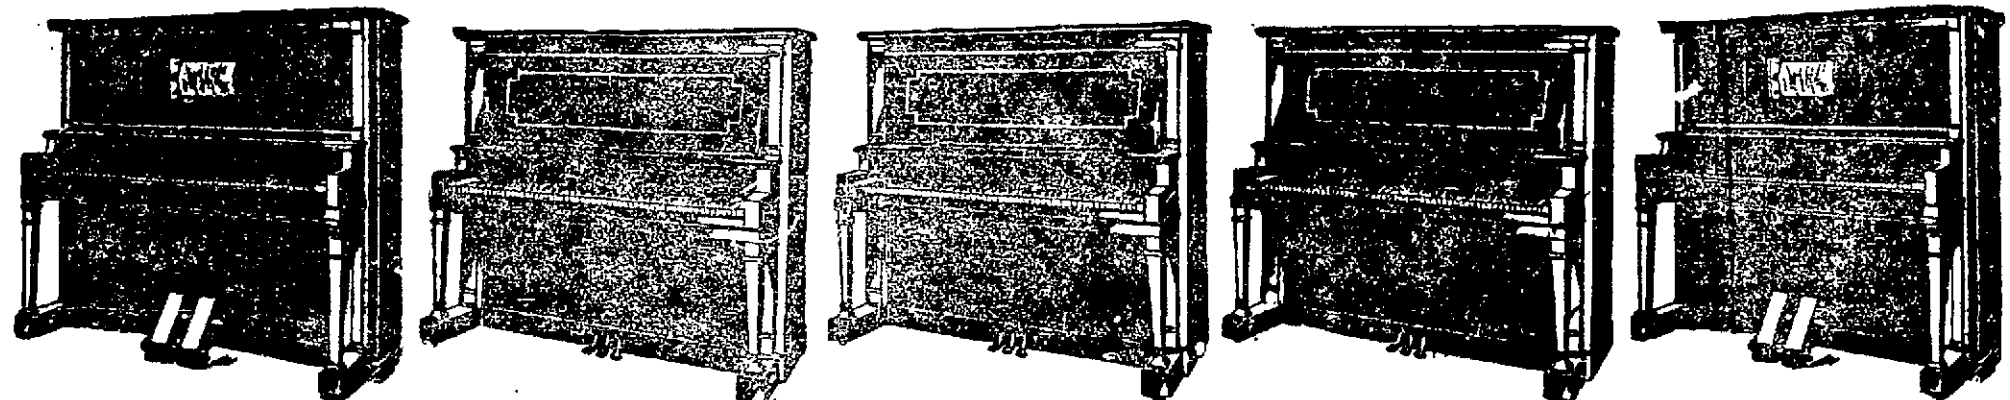

be the main study of the camp.

This camp is known as National Service School 6, and the leading spirit in it is Mrs. Hugh L. Scott, wife of the United States Army Chief of Staff. Two groups of women numbering 400 each, will spend twenty days here. They will wear khaki uniforms and study military subjects besides tilling the soil.

SAVE DAD'S LIFE;
GET IT FOR HIMSays It Is Suicide to Cut Corns
and Tells How They Lift Right Out.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezeone." This will cost very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezeone is sticky it dries in a moment, and seems to simply shroud up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father suffer from foot or leg trouble by whitening his corns, but cut this out and make him try it.—Advertisement.

SPRING FEVER

Not Due to Germs From Without but to Toxic Poisons
Within the Body.

(By DR. VALENTINE MOIT)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxic poisons stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables. Spinach should be eaten often because it contains 33 per cent of iron and makes for better nutrition of the blood.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the springtime of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a one and a half century old recommendation, is extracted from Elpidio root, Golden Seal and Stone root. Queen's root and Oregon Grape root, made up with chemically pure glycerin and without the use of alcohol. This can be obtained in ready-to-use form anywhere, as druggists have sold it for fifty years as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form.

A good purge should be taken once a week even by persons who have a movement daily, in order to eliminate matter which may remain and cause a condition of auto-intoxication. To clean the system at least once a week is to practice preventive measures. There is nothing so good for this purpose as tiny pills made up of the May-apple, leaves of aloë and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in this country as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.—Advertisement.

Druggist's Experience with Kidney Medicine

Judging from what purchasers say of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is good staple medicine apparently well thought of by the public and fulfilling most of, if not all, the claims made. I have been eleven years in this store and have heard a conversation against Swamp-Root.

Very truly yours,
C. S. KENDALL, Druggist.

For You.

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone who will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing be sure and mention the Oakland Daily Tribune. TRIBUNE SHOWN
IN WIDE QUERIES

Evidence of the wide circulation and advertising power of The OAK-LAND TRIBUNE is shown in the many inquiries which have been made from points as widely separated as Liverpool, England, and the island of Ceylon, in regard to an article which was published in the issue of Sunday, January 21, 1917. On that date The TRIBUNE published a story descriptive of an invention by Captain J. H. Aldrich of this city for the extraction of the kernel of the nut of the coquina palm.

Since the publication of the article in The TRIBUNE, Captain Aldrich has received hundreds of letters from various points covering a territory ranging fifty degrees of latitude north of the equator and 210 degrees of longitude.

Captain Aldrich believes that the coquina palm, which grows in incalculable numbers along the Pacific Coast of Mexico and Central America, will revolutionize the coconut in the production of oil of commercial use. His machine for the extraction of the kernels from the hard, woody nut is practically complete, and he expects to begin practical use of it within three months in Guatemala.

DOUGLAS SOULE
PLANS RECITAL

Douglas Soule, whose musical studies in Berlin were interrupted by the outbreak of the European war, will give his first public piano recital on Thursday evening of this week in the lobby barroom of the Hotel Oakland. He is the son of Mrs. Ella Bacon Soule, and many prominent east bay society folk will act as patrons and patronesses for the occasion. He will be assisted by Herman Martonne, violinist, and Herbert Riley, cellist. Frederick Maurer Jr. and Mrs.
Herbert Riley will be the accompanists.

The following program will be given:
Sonata in C-minor, Op. 20, No. 2, Chopin
Four Preludes, Op. 28, Chopin
Toujours en Douceur, Chopin

Chanson-meditation, R. Cottenet

WILL DISPORT

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Venice and Santa Monica authorities do not believe in making laws which will in any way affect the attractiveness of their beaches, the haven of thousands during the summer months. And, although in the advertisements are mentioned the cooling breezes from the nearby sea and the tempting surf, it is admitted that were it not for the trim-formed Venuses who disport themselves in the afore-mentioned setting, the beach would be a barren waste.

What are termed the 1917 bathing suit "regulations" have gone into effect for the season. But there will be no limit to the style or brevity of the suits, from toes up, or neck down. The authorities felt it necessary to insist that a cloak of some character be worn inside the line of the suit, which will be worn inside the line of the suit.

A protest against bathrobes allowed to "flap open in front and not buttoned up when worn" went unheeded, and bathers may drape their "coverings"
in any way they see fit.

Otherwise regulations are a minus quantity.

PINCHOT SPEAKS

ATLANTA, Ga., May 1.—Gifford Pinchot, who is touring the South in the interest of increased food crops, told members of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce today that "the starvation of England by use of the submarine is not impossible."

He said this would mean Germany would get the English fleet and come to the American coast with an army of 200,000, "against which this nation could not make a stand."

"But," he said, "I believe the South will feed England and the allies, which will mean victory for allied arms within a year."

MANY ENTER U. S.

EL PASO, Tex., May 1.—United States immigration officers here report an unusual rush of Mexican laborers to the American side to escape the new $8 head tax that goes into effect tomorrow, as well as the intercity test to be applied on and after May 5. The rush has been in progress several days. The tax applies only to Mexicans intending to reside in the United States and not to Mexicans subject to the intercity test daily for work and who have their homes in Mexico. No ill feeling over the law has been manifested here or in Juarez by the officials of the Carranza government, which has been trying for some time to check the stream of laborers for the north, thus weakening Mexico in its reserves of workers and human military material.

DIES OF WOUND

SAN DIEGO, May 1.—Charles C. Briggs, an attorney who, with J. J. Brennan, another attorney, was shot by E. C. Hickman, really hiker, succumbed to his wound at a local hospital late yesterday.
Hickman, who turned the weapon upon himself after he had shot the two attorneys in Brennan's office, was unconscious last night and died this morning of his wound. Brennan was slightly wounded in the arm.

According to reports of the men Hickman had been worrying lately over a lawsuit in which judgment was given against him. Briggs represented the other side.

"LIBERALS" MEET

WASHINGTON, May 1.—A group of political leaders calling themselves "Liberals" met here today to promote national prohibition as a war measure.
They did not see President Wilson, as planned, but sent him a memorial urging prohibition, both to save food supply and to encourage military efficiency. They also arranged to bring the liquor question before the conference of governors to be held here Wednesday, with the hope of obtaining prohibition legislation by states during the war.

FIREMEN PLANTERS

PIEDMONT, May 1.—Members of the Piedmont Fire Department are doing their bit in increasing food production by cultivating various crops on a 50 by 50-foot lot, they acquired in the rear of the fire house. They are growing peas, beans, lettuce, radishes, onions, tomatoes and other vegetables for their own consumption. The garden squad is led by Captain W. G. Tullett and Second Assistant Chief John Hilkey.

KAHN'S

Society

It is to be the Red Cross Society, British as well as American, that the smart set and those seeking diversion this week are to be indebted for their pleasure. And strange it is that both patriotic benefits should have been named for Thursday evening. Quite happy it is that neither will interfere with the other, being given by the Home Club and the other at the Twentieth Century clubhouse in Berkeley.

That charming group of maids and matrons who make up the personnel of the American Red Cross unit which gathers each Monday at the residence of Mrs. William Cavalier to add their bit to the general preparedness of the nation, will act as the hostesses at the Home Club program and dance. And there are surprises galore with twin pictures bubbling over with mirth, gay songs and delicious bits of exhibition dancing to tempt any program lover to the Fourth Avenue clubhouse. Those who will make welcome the several hundred who have given their hearts to the cause of the Red Cross and at the same time pledging themselves a bit of diversion now and then are Mrs. Cavalier, Mrs. Stuart Hawley, Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Roger Chickering, Miss Cleo Foster, Miss Georgiana Creed and as many more. There is a round of dinners to precede the merry evening. And as the guests climb the long terraces there will be heard the floating notes from the out-of-door concert of one of the quartet bands.

The patronesses for the brilliant function are Mrs. D. E. Easterbrook, Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mrs. E. A. Heron, Mrs. Grace Gray, Mrs. E. C. Hogan, Mrs. Edward M. Walsh, Mrs. Dudley Kinsell, Mrs. John F. Connors, Mrs. Sam Belle Wakefield, Mrs. F. M. Smith, together with all the members of the Home Club.

That a generous gift may be made to the treasury of the British Red Cross at the invitation of Mrs. A. Carnegie Ross, wife of the British consul to San Francisco, the dramatic section of the Claremont Club is presenting "All the Comforts of Home" with a dozen of so well-known society amateurs in the cast. In their number are Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cornwall, Miss Elsie Noyes, Miss Mary Risdon, Miss Emily Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lockett, Miss Mabel Lockett, Wayne Stephenson, E. de Reynier, Arthur E. Rowe, A. Ormsby Donogh Jr., Fenton Foster, Ormond Smith.

The dance which will follow will be one of the largest of the week, assembling several hundred in the lovely Berkeley clubhouse.

Mrs. John J. Donovan this afternoon opened her handsome Piedmont residence to that little coterie of trotters and close friends who through several winters have been meeting at luncheon and at the card tables for happy reunions together. But bridge has been laid away with the dear dead things of the past and nothing but needles have been produced and what was once one of the gayest of the fortnightly frivolities has been transformed in a twinkling into an energetic and serious unit of the Red Cross. Mrs. John Louis Lohr has been elected to the captaincy of the exclusive little group whose hands are to be given to that rougher work which the patriotic society demands for its base hospitals. Among the number are Mrs. Benjamin Ross, Mrs. Maurice Walsh, Mrs. Irving Lundborg, Mrs. Irving Burrill, Mrs. Frederick Diekmann, Mrs. Donovan, Miss Letitia Barry and as many more.

Mrs. Frank Delger Moller as her guest of honor, Miss Eunice Routh entertained at a prettily appointed affair on Saturday, which included a coterie of close friends in the invitation to meet the beautiful young bride, Mrs. Moller, until her hasty wedding of a few weeks ago, was Miss Kathlene Heathorne. The honeymoon was spent touring Southern California. There is a procession of charming affairs being arranged in compliment to her which will make the days of the earlier summer unusually gay for that coterie of the younger set with which she is popular.

With her sister, Miss Blanche Bonestell, as her guest of honor, Mrs. Stanley Ross, wife of the British consul to San Francisco, the dramatic section of the Claremont Club is presenting "All the Comforts of Home" with a dozen of so well-known society amateurs in the cast. In their number are Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cornwall, Miss Elsie Noyes, Miss Mary Risdon, Miss Emily Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lockett, Miss Mabel Lockett, Wayne Stephenson, E. de Reynier, Arthur E. Rowe, A. Ormsby Donogh Jr., Fenton Foster, Ormond Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Scott, with their daughter, Miss Adele Scott, will probably according to their well established custom, open their Russian river camp about the 1st of July. It is a lovely spot, which has been charmingly developed and made into a place of comfort without destroying the beauty of the place. There is a long series of camp parties, which include the Scott friends in interesting groups. And during the links of the Bohemian Club in their wonderful game, which is not far distant, Mrs. Scott takes in a large number of the wives of the members, who plan their own festivities in opposition to men of the household.

Again this fall will Miss Frances Whitsett come from her Los Angeles home to spend a month or so with Miss Scott, whom she visited last season. She was made much of by that charming group of girls who are Miss Scott's intimates and word that her visit would probably be repeated this year promises a delightful series of affairs. It will be sometime in August before Miss Whitsett will plan to come north.

Mrs. Robert D. Huntington is leaving in a fortnight for Seattle, where she will remain through the mid-summer with her family. The attractive young matron will be absent from her Piedmont home at least two months. Before her wedding, which brought her to the bay cities to join the smart set, Mrs. Huntington was a favorite in the northern city and her arrival will be the signal for a procession of those delightful affairs such as can be offered only by hostesses who are privileged to bring together old friends in happy reunions.

With Mr. and Mrs. Edilberto Gustavo Anderson (Dorothy Taylor) as her guests of honor, Mrs. Huntington on Sunday evening entertained at a prettily appointed supper, bringing together in a most informal way a congenial group of friends whom the Huntingtons and Andersons enjoy in common.

Just as the sun slips behind the Golden Gate there will be solemnized this evening the marriage ceremony which will make Miss Irma Kate Morris the bride of Benjamin Enos Tooker. The morning session in the latter avenue will lend the setting to the little wedding company, which will number only the members of the immediate family circles. Spring blooms have been used in the simple decorations of the reception room. The service will be read by Dr. Robert William Reud. James Tooker will assist his brother as best man.

Following their honeymoon the young people will take possession of a cozy home which awaits their return. Miss Morris is a gifted young organist. Tooker holds a responsible position with a well-known firm across the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adams are closing their Adams Point home within a few days, when they leave on an interesting motor trip, whose destination will be Los Angeles. They will be the hosts of the house for their daughter, Mrs. Charles Edwards, through the mid-May. Mrs. Edwards will be remembered as Miss Evelyn Adams, one of the popular girls of the smart set, before her marriage took her to Southern California to reside.

Mrs. Ormond Smith will be a dinner hostess on Thursday evening, opening her attractive new home to a small group of close friends. Later the merry company will go on to the Twentieth Century clubhouse, where for the benefit of the British Red Cross Society the dramatic section of the Claremont Club is presenting the Gillette comedy, "All the Comforts of Home." The play will be followed by a dance.

Mrs. Smith was, before her marriage of the early year, the popular Betty Vent.

After a serious five weeks in Merritt hospital, where she submitted to two serious operations, Mrs. Frederick Diekmann is being welcomed to her home in Kingston Avenue. Her convalescence has been rapid.

Frank C. Havens, convalescing rapidly from his recent serious illness and it will be a matter of but a few weeks before he is able to take again his place in the busy world of affairs.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Doris Ashton and Edward Paxson Howard, the ceremony having taken place yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Howard, in Piedmont. Only a small company of relatives were present at the service, which was read by Rev. Edward Lamb Parsons of Berkeley. Howard is joining the officers' training camp at the Presidio and during his service the charming young matron will remain with his family on the island of the bay. Formerly both were students in the University of California. Mrs. Howard's family home is in Vancouver.

TODAY'S BEAUTY TALK

You can enjoy a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist a package of cantharox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cap of shampoo aqua, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and hair until both are entirely covered by the daintily perfumed preparation that thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing the hair dries quickly, with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure. Advertisement.

Red Cross of Constantine Installs New Companions

San Francisco Knights Among Guests at Hotel Oakland Function

St. Philip Conclave No. 23, Red Cross of Constantine, held a formal installation of newly elected Knights Companions at the Hotel Oakland last night. This installation was followed by a dinner served in the taproom room. The following newly elected Knights Companions attended: Henry W. Taylor, Dr. W. J. McCracken, C. L. Barham and John W. Gwilt.

The dinner was in compliment to the newly installed Knights, as well as to the Knights of St. Francis Conclave No. 35 of San Francisco. This latter convocation was represented by a deputation headed by Judge William H. Waste, M. P. Sovereign of St. Francis Conclave, Dr. Elmer E. Stone, Viceroy and Past Grand Commander of Knights Templar in California, and A. J. Dismare.

Many felicitous speeches were made at the dinner and the whole affair was considered one of the most enjoyable ever held by St. Philip Conclave. The following Knights Companions attended: F. W. Bilger, B. A. Forrester, Dr. P. A. Manotte, A. F. Edwards, George F. Fore, D. E. Perkins, C. J. Heesman, H. L. Breed, John A. Cochran, H. C. Caswell, Hiram T. Hall, William L. Macdonald, Harmon Bell, Dr. C. F. Jarvis, Fred E. Taylor, Dr. A. S. Kelly, L. E. Westrich, William H. Waste, Dr. E. E. Stone, A. J. DeLamare, Henry W. Taylor, John W. Gwilt, Dr. W. J. McCracken, C. L. Barham.

After two years' activity without a rabbi, and following many months' intensive search for an ideal religious leader, members of Temple Sinai, most important Jewish congregation in Alameda county, last night chose Rev. Harvey B. Franklin of Stockton to serve as pastor, beginning August 1. Several applicants were named in the final vote, but Dr. Franklin emerged victorious.

According to committee members, who selected the interior city man as a potential congregation leader, Franklin is a University of Chicago graduate, with honors, and a 1916 graduate of the Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati training school for Jewish pastors. He was a student under the noted Dr. Emil Hirsch, Chicago divine.

Following his graduation from the Cincinnati training school, he accepted the call from Earl Israel congregation in Stockton, whence he comes to the local flock. The committee recommended the acceptance of Dr. Franklin was commended by Frederick Kahn, chairman; A. S. Lavenson, Judge George Samuels, Louis Wais, Ben Mordechai, Alexander Hirschberg, Milton Marxon members, who, in proposing the successful candidate, reviewed the two years' activity of the congregation under secular control, commending the work done by the synagogue's officers. He further added that under a pastor's leadership the congregation would continue along harmonious ways.

BELL SUCCEEDS
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Major General Leonard Wood was succeeded as commander of the Department of the East today by Major General Franklin B. Bell. The transfer of command, which has been commander of the Department of the West, with headquarters at San Francisco, Wood established the new Department of the South, with headquarters at Charleston, S. C.

The transfer, which routed a storm of criticism on the part of Wood's friends, who charged that the general's criticism of war department methods was the reason for it, reverses a seven-year-old incident. In 1910 Wood succeeded Bell as chief of staff. Bell takes the more important post and Wood commands a new and in popular opinion, less important post.

Lovely White Skin!
Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

By all means, girls, prepare a lemon lotion to keep your skin flexible and young looking. You will soon realize that it is loveliness, does not mean the powdery look or waxen colorlessness of some hot-house flower, but is typified by the velvet softness of your skin, your peach-like complexion and rosy-white hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this, sweetly fragrant lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and hidden beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.—Advertisement.

HEAD TAX TO BE IN FORCE TODAY

Among the provisions of the immigration bill, recently passed by Congress over President Wilson's veto, which go into effect today are the raising of the alien head tax from $4 to $8, and the exclusion of all laborers from India, the South Sea Islands and vicinity. Hereafter two inspectors will conduct the examination of all aliens instead of one, as has been the custom under the old law. Under the literacy test, which will become part of the law next Saturday, all aliens over 15 years of age, who cannot read the English language or some other language will be excluded from the United States. However, any citizen or admissible alien may bring in his father or grandfather over 55 years of age; his wife, mother, grandmother, or unmarried or widowed daughter without the prescribed reading test.

Women Steady Workers
It used to be said that women could not be depended upon like men to work steadily. And, consequently, ought not to expect so much pay as men employed at similar work. While it would be foolish for any young woman to stay at work when physically unfit, it is believed that most women now continue at their work as constantly as men. Any woman who is unable to do so should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the old, reliable medicine for women, and get the aid she needs to enable her to keep at work.—Advertisement.

"Milady's Spinet"

DEAR to the heart of every true American are those things which, in our own day bring us vivid memories of the early revolutionary days of our country. We are not, like the European, rich in old historic associations, yet there are many memories which we will always cherish and which will always hold for us a vivid and intimate charm. Much of the romance of truly American association is locked up in the spinet desk. We are reminded of the quaint old musical instruments of Martha Washington's time, of stately, candle-lighted rooms, of the dainty minuet and quadrille, and the courtly manners and charming graces of an earlier time. This, our legacy of old romance from Colonial days, is expressed through the skill of modern designers in the exquisite writing desk patterned after "Milady's Spinet."

The above illustration represents a spinet desk made in solid mahogany which we are featuring at the

TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1917.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The State legislature has adjourned after establishing a record for the amount of public money appropriated. The expenditures for the ensuing biennial period will total about $5,000,000 more than the budget of 1915. The batch of new legislation includes a few outstanding features.

Among these is one due to the present war emergency, the act creating a State defense guard of 1000 men. This was passed in accordance with Governor Stephens' recommendation for a police force to deal with internal problems should the federalized National Guard be entirely withdrawn from State duty. It is understood that the Governor will not call the new new police force, to equip and maintain which $1,000,000 has been appropriated, unless an actual necessity for its use arises.

Among the new features of State governmental functions is the law under the authority of which the State will embark upon the business of land colonization. An appropriation of $260,000 was voted to enable the State commission on land colonization to acquire 10,000 acres of agricultural land and resell it to farmers of small means. Purchasers of this land will be permitted to pay for it as they please between five years and forty years, their debt to the State to bear interest at 4 percent. This measure was recommended by the commission, which had investigated the problem exhaustively during the preceding two years, and had the endorsement of former Governor Johnson. It is in the way of an experiment. If the State can successfully buy improved farm land, subdivide it into small tracts, and turn it over to the home seeker of small means but industrious habits, it may confer a large public benefit. The money appropriated by the State will in time return to the public treasury, as it comprises a revolving fund the interest of which, when the fund is large enough, ought to pay the cost of administration. The experiment will be watched with attention and general sympathy.

Another measure enacted creates a market dictator with authority to exercise far-reaching control over the business of production, distribution and consumption of agricultural products. This is the Weinstock market bureau. In view of Colonel Weinstock's well-known predilection for organizing profit-taking market combinations to control the price of food staples, the public will be less hopeful of the successful outcome from this legislation than in the case of the land bill.

Regulatory laws with reference to private business were strengthened in several notable instances. The so-called blue sky law was fortified in accordance with the views of the corporation commissioner. The industrial accident commission got many of its recommendations for increasing its power and the facilities for carrying out its designs approved; and the railroad commission secured the enactment of an amendment to the public utilities law giving it control over automobile lines between municipalities.

On the other hand the legislature procrastinated and quarreled so long over measures which the public considered of much importance that they were lost in the rush of the closing hours of the session. Among these were the laws to regulate the liquor traffic, the social evil and to promote medical research. Generally speaking, the legislators exhibited the usual degree of tender-footedness when they came to the consideration of questions on which public opinion was presumably evenly divided, and in contests between truth and prejudice. In other words, the legislature ran true to form. Its praiseworthy acts are far outweighed by its harmful omissions.

PASS THE HARBOR BILL.

Opposition has been expressed in Congress to consideration during the present extra session of the rivers and harbors bill. Members of the Senate committee on rivers and harbors, who led the opposition to the bill during the short session of the sixty-fourth Congress, have openly declared that they will not "stand for" a rivers and harbors bill during this session.

Yet the urgency of such a measure is so patent that the administration and the majority of Congress ought to be strong enough to force the anti-development group to limit their opposition to negative votes. This measure, as it passed the House last February, carried an appropriation of $39,000,000. Nearly $30,000,000 of this amount was for continuing projects which will have to be suspended after June 30, unless the bill is passed. Both old and new projects, all the latter of which had been endorsed by the army engineers, should be authorized at this session. Development of waterways and harbors is of so much greater importance at this time, because of their service to shipbuilding and national defense, that opposition will have a hard time justifying itself.

Oakland's inner harbor is among the continuing projects and the appropriation for the next year's work would almost complete the improvement the government has undertaken. Richmond harbor is a new project, but has been approved by the army engineers for several years and it is important that the government start work on it as soon as possible. There are other projects in the country, both old and new, development of which would be of real service and Congress can ill afford at this time to let a few prejudiced individuals prevent it from performing its palpable duty.

SOCIALISTS SHOULD BE ON GUARD.

Socialists throughout the world are in danger of meeting with embarrassments because of the open plan and efforts to make a catspaw of the leaders of the German Socialist party. The latest use which the Berlin government has made of the Socialists is the sending of a mission headed by Scheidemann, Sudekum and others to Copenhagen and Zurich to open up intrigues with Russian Socialists to prevent the Russian people realizing their aims for self government.

It is unlikely that the German government, having shown its amazing capacity for intrigue in this country, will attempt to use Socialists in the United States to incite opposition to the American government's campaign of defense. A few days ago the Socialist convention at St. Louis adopted resolutions expressing opposition to the war. In view of the fact that the Socialist candidate for the Presidency last November has issued a statement, supported by other Socialist leaders, fully endorsing President Wilson in waging the war, it is not easy to believe that the Socialists who met at St. Louis were representative. The proceedings at that convention were in accordance with the preachments of the thoroughgoing Marxians, whose expressions today have a melancholy sound.

It has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of dispute that the international Socialist becomes an intense nationalist when his country goes to war for a cause he esteems just. German Socialists and French Socialists have contested with each other in voting war credits and in enlisting with the colors of their respective governments during the last three years. It is not reasonable to believe that German or French Socialists would say to their fellow idealists in either Russia or the United States that they should withhold the least measure of support from these governments, unless they are actuated by enmity or directed so to do by the Berlin government. Therefore it behooves us, when trying to analyze the causes of socialistic opposition to the program of Petrograd and Washington, to inquire whether it is inspired by the officials of the Wilhelmstrasse or by original antagonism rather than by conscientious objection to war.

The German Socialists have long preached death to czarism. Now czarism is dead and the former slaves of the Russian oligarchy are trying to make their new-found independence and freedom a real and permanent thing. The United States is fighting to maintain and preserve ideals of human liberty and equal rights in this country, in Russia and elsewhere. To be consistent, the German Socialists, as well as all others who have realized to their sorrow that democracy and social equality cannot be preserved except by the sheer force of physical strength at arms, should demand the overthrow of kaiserdom. When they do otherwise we know that they are not speaking as Socialists, but as nationalists. We have no less respect for them for their change of heart, but must be more cautious in watching their work.

Parliamentary elections in Japan have resulted in the complete victory for the Terauchi ministry. In the lower house of the Diet the government has won 217 seats against 164 for the opposition. This means that Premier Terauchi and his cabinet will be retained and that the policy of the government with regard to the war, including the agreement to make no separate peace with the central powers and the policy of a kinder attitude toward China, has been endorsed and will continue to be the course of Japan. The Diet convenes in June and at that time Premier Terauchi is expected to reaffirm the foreign policy of the government. That it includes the wholehearted support of Japan for the entente nations in the war is a source of particular gratification in the United States. It confirms the absolute failure of the Zimmermann plot.

California leads off with an Advertising Day. Governor Stephens has lent his assistance in designating it. In so doing he very intelligently and with commendable brevity refers to its benefits and advantages—how it contributes to the national welfare through reducing prices by distribution and demand; and he calls attention to the fact that it has greatly assisted in California's prosperity by directing the world's attention to her products and her natural advantages. Advertising has advanced from the haphazard and lackadaisical status to almost an exact system, as much a factor in modern business as any other feature of it, and possibly more. May 1st is to be the initial Advertising Day by gubernatorial designation, and we may expect such observance to become a custom throughout the country.

NOTES and COMMENT

The soap box orator is falling on evil days. He has been so used to denouncing the government and the things that were being done that he has here and there persisted in the habit, to run up against a rather summary arm of the law. There is some hope that this situation will help to abate him permanently.

The act of the Legislature which confirms the title of tidelands to the city of Alameda was one of its most praiseworthy performances. That city is low unquestionably equipped to invite such great enterprises as the naval base to locate on its waterfront.

The Nevada City News gives testimony in rebuttal: "Los Angeles papers are trying to make out that Sacramento is the wickedest city in the state. We don't believe it. The editor of the News, with his own eyes, has seen the Sasadenans playing croquet on Sunday."

The point has been made, though not with any feeling, that while the East is most excited and voluble, the West is most given to enlisting. It is necessary in some degree to sound the tocsin, though it is more to the point to shoulder a musket.

The clock was turned back with a vengeance at Sacramento—something like 28 hours. The normal time set for closing the session was 12 o'clock on Friday night, but the closing occurred Sunday morning at 4. But the legislative timepiece gave no tell-tale sign.

General Nivelle won victories, but they were not smashing enough to suit the French, and General Petain has been put in command. The French seem to be in earnest and sympathetically so.

Capper's Weekly comes through with this: "It may also be said for William Howard Taft that he has not offered his services to his country in the capacity of a private soldier. It may be that Prof. Bill had his faults, but he exudes very little 'holium.'"

Milk went up, too. You can't elude H. C. L. by making it bread and milk.

The Richmond G. A. R. veterans are not in favor of picnics on the forthcoming Decoration day. They seem to have a recollection of that other time when war's alarms sounded through the land—which they remember distinctly was no picnic at all.

Peace advocates are no more popular in New Zealand than they are here or in other countries where defense is necessary. All candidates who opposed conscription in the recent election were defeated.

The Nevada City News explains the cause: "Old court house at Susanville, Lassen county, sold at auction this week for $85. There is not much of a demand for court houses on account of so few people knowing how to run them."

One avers missed a snoring mark when they failed to take the No. 1000 American ship with 1145 passengers, which has just arrived. The joy of sinking that vessel with all on board would have been very great to ruthless hearts.

The penchant for introducing bills was not so marked at the 1917 session of the Legislature as at the 1915 session. There were but 2885 measures proposed, as against 3081. But 1290 became laws, as against 771 two years ago. And the session lasted but 66 days, against 91 days for its predecessor.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

The forty-five counties, with 1300 Sunday schools, enrolling nearly 300,000 men, women, boys and girls, will hold their meeting in Oakland, May 14 to 17. The municipal auditorium, the great convention building, will be the place of meeting. The adult Bible class banquet will be held at the First Congregational church on Monday evening, May 14. Mr. Pearce of Chicago will be the speaker of the evening. The different classes will sit in groups displaying their banners and giving their class yells.—Hanford Sentinel.

Deputy Sheriff William J. Bigger was summoned as a witness in a case in the Superior Court. Through a misunderstanding he failed to put in an appearance, but James Sex stated to the court and jury what this honest man would testify to. At the conclusion of the trial Bigger sought Sex and thanked him for his kind expression before the jury, when Sex replied: "Oh, you need not thank me for telling a prevarication like that; there was not a man on that jury that believed a word I said."—San Jose Mercury.

Apparently the resources of diplomatic language are inexhaustible. Witness, for instance, the official German statement describing the deportation of the population of the recently evacuated districts. The last sentence of that statement is, "Objects of value were taken in charge by the German authorities." We have observed, nearer home, Francisco Villa manifesting very great efficiency in taking "objects of value in charge," but he has never shown such skill of language in describing the process.—Fresno Republican.

Professor David N. Morgan of the State University, once connected with the Stockton high school, and who carried off one of our Stockton girls, Myra Georgia Stephens, says: "The farmers need 20,000 men right now and 150,000 later, and that the cities must furnish them. He says that number of laborers have gone east to engage in industrial pursuits. But with men leaving or preparing to join the army and navy, it looks as if the urbanites would be rather well thinned out, too."—Stockton Mail.

All the peaches from 1000 acres near Auburn, Placer county, now planted, for a period of nineteen years, involving about 130,000,000 pounds of fruit, have been contracted by Libby, McNeil & Libby of Chicago. The other party to the contract is J. R. Martin, owner of a large tract of land northwest of Auburn, which is in the heart of one of California's greatest peach districts. Planting of the trees will begin at the end of this year.—Chicago Enterprise.

THE FARMERS

To the Editor of The Tribune:

In this great time, when every citizen must do his part, the President has made his chief appeal to the men who live on the land. He is right in doing so, for the safety of our country just now is in the hands of our farmers. What I mean is not merely our safety and the safety of our allies in the matter of food. I mean that the safety of the United States against foreign invasion hangs on the decision of the farmers of the forty-eight States.

The two great weapons in this war are arms and starvation. The war against German arms will be won or lost in France; the war against starvation will be won or lost in America. The Kaiser cannot whip the French and English armies and the English navy while England has food. But it is all possible that the German submarines may be able to keep food from reaching England to starve her into submission.

If the submarines win, the first item in the Kaiser's terms of peace will be the English fleet. With the English fleet in his possession the Kaiser will be master of the world. What will happen to us then? Every man who stops to think knows the answer. We shall have no money, no food, no labor land—everything that is desirable in the world except the power to protect what we have. Experts estimate that it will take us nine months to get ready to meet a German army of over 150,000 men with modern artillery. Under such circumstances, would the Germans treat us better than they have already treated Belgium and France?

Even if the armies of our allies should crush the German military power this summer, before the shortage of food can reach the point of want, the world would still need vast quantities of American food. But if they do not, only one course can make us safe, and that is to grow food enough on our farms for ourselves and our allies, and to put ships enough on the sea to carry the food, in spite of the submarines, to the men who are fighting our fight.

If the war lasts beyond this summer, it will be the American farmer who will win or lose the war, who will overcome militarism and autocracy, or allow them to spread and control the world, ourselves included. This is no fanciful picture, but sober fact. Many a man will make light of it until he comes to think it over, but I venture to say that few will treat it lightly after careful thought. It is no more impossible than the great war itself appeared to be only a few days before it began. It is true that we can greatly increase the available food supply out of grain now used in making liquors and by reducing household waste. But when these two things are done, and done thoroughly, they will not be enough. The final decision will rest in the hands of the men who raise our food in the first place.

The clear duty of the nation is to guarantee the farmers a fair price for their crops when grown, and a reasonable supply of labor at harvest. The clear duty of the farmer is to raise food enough to win this war for democracy against kaiserism.

No such responsibility has ever rested on any class of men since the world began as rests today on the farmers of America.

Sincerely yours,

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Milford, Pa., April 26, 1917.

UNDERSTOOD PERFECTLY.

The break with Germany is not a misunderstanding, but an understanding. She has left no room to be misunderstood. Other nations understand her better than she herself. It is the penalty of the egotist to be incapable of sound judgment. A false appraisal of oneself is certain to lead to a false opinion of one's neighbor. And this has been notably the case with Germany. From an address by Bishop Charles H. Brent before the Comité France-Amérique in Paris.

EARLY HISTORY OF SHARON HEIR TOLD

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Early life history of Frederick Wallace Sharon, claimant to a portion of the F. W. Sharon estate, was reviewed yesterday before Judge Coffey, when W. E. Sharon, president of the Sharon Estate Company, took the stand and told of events before and after the death of the millionaire. It was found by questioning of Thomas Dozier, counsel for the claimant, that the present head of the company had investigated closely the claimant's case and followed his belief that this action was a "frame-up."

Attorney Garrett W. McEneaney of the estate questioned W. E. Sharon about three lawsuits and one letter written in 1893, when the alleged adoption of Frederick Wallace Sharon by F. W. Sharon is supposed to have taken place. The estate's attorney endeavored to prove that Mrs. Etta Sharon, the claimant's mother, was at Del Monte at the time and not in court, where her legal presence was necessary.

LIVE FOREVER

Says DR. WILEY

In a recent lecture, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the noted chemist and food expert, said:

"If you mix whole wheat products with milk you can live forever."

What Dr. Wiley undoubtedly means by "live forever" is the fact that whole wheat with milk contains the proper elements for sustaining life without the addition of other foods.

Krumbles is the whole of the wheat, thoroughly toasted, and has a delicious flavor.

NOTICE

To American Stamp Collectors and Merchants Giving Them:

The Anti-Trading Stamp Bill, recently passed by the Legislature, if signed by the Governor, will not go into effect until ONE YEAR AFTER JULY 1st.

Had the Legislature known how much good American Trading Stamps have done for thousands and thousands of housewives in California, and how this wonderful advertising medium has enabled hundreds of merchants to build up their businesses, they surely would not have passed this Bill, NO MATTER HOW MUCH PRESSURE WAS BROUGHT TO BEAR BY STORES WHO DO NOT GIVE TRADING STAMPS.

This bill does not, however, become a law until signed by the Governor, and we sincerely hope that he will consider carefully before depriving the thousands of economical housewives of the great benefit Trading Stamps give them and depriving the merchants who desire to use this legitimate means of advertising their businesses.

AMERICAN TRADING STAMPS will always be good! Continue to save them! Each stamp is guaranteed and will always be redeemed at its full value.

CENSORSHIP ORDERED ON TELEGRAPH

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The United States government today locked a censorship upon cables, telegraphs and telephones, applying the cable prohibitions to all lines, but operating against telegraphs and telephones only along the Mexican border.

President Wilson ordered the censorship by proclamation and left it to the war and navy departments to work out regulations.

These regulations were completed and the censorship ordered into immediate effect.

Wilson's proclamation reads: "Whereas, the existence of a state of war between the United States and the imperial German government makes it essential to the public safety that no communication of a character which would aid the enemy or its allies shall be had.

"Therefore, by virtue of the power vested in me under the constitution and by the joint resolution passed by Congress on April 6, 1917, declaring the existence of a state of war, it is ordered that all companies or other persons owning, controlling or operating telegraph and telephone lines or submarine cables are hereby prohibited from transmitting messages to points without the United States and from delivering messages received from such points except those permitted under rules and regulations to be established by the secretary of war for telegraph and telephone lines, and by the secretary of the navy for submarine cables.

"To these departments, respectively, is delegated the duty of preparing and enforcing rules and regulations under this order to accomplish the purpose mentioned. This order shall take effect from date.

"WOODROW WILSON."

The censorship naturally hits newspapers and press associations chiefly, but it also involves messages, incoming and outgoing, of American business concerns and individuals.

The objects of the censorship are officially defined as being to prevent military information reaching the enemy; to prevent spreading of information prejudicial to the interests of the United States or of interest to Germany; to prevent circulation of false reports or reports prejudicial either to military operations or prejudicial to relations with foreign powers.

FIRST WAR REGULATION.
It constitutes America's first taste of real, war-time ironclad military censorship, and the regulations are sufficiently broad to give the government the broadest powers of deleting or withholding messages.

Commander D. W. Todd, director of naval communications, will be in charge of the cable censorship, with Commander Arthur B. Hoff controlling the New York division, while Brigadier-General McIntyre will direct the telegraph and telephone supervision on the border.

The committee on public information will provide the clearing house necessary to regulate the activities of the naval and military censorship to ensure department of government.

The cable censorship regulations are issued for the guidance of the public. The text of the regulations is as follows:

CODES.
The following authorized codes may be used conditioned on the acceptability under the censorship regulations in effect in the foreign countries concerned. The name of the code shall be written in the check and be signaled free:
A. E. C. fifth.
Scott's tenth edition.
Western Union (not including five-letter edition).
Lieber's (not including five-letter edition).
Fentley's complete phrase code (not including the oil and mining supplements).
Broomhall's Imperial combination code.
Broomhall's Imperial combination code, rubber edition.
Meyer's Atlantic cotton code, thirty-ninth edition.
Riverside code, fifth edition.
A. Z.

TO AND CENSORS.
Addresses:
Must be complete, but properly registered addresses may be used where permitted by the censorship abroad. However, code addresses registered subsequent to December 31, 1916, may not be used in messages to and from Central and South America, Cuba, Porto Rico, Virgin Islands, Haiti, Santo Domingo, Curacao, or in messages transmitted over the Commercial Pacific cable or via transatlantic wireless.

Text:
Cablegrams without text will not be passed.

Signatures:
All cablegrams must be signed by the name of the firm or in case of an individual by at least the surname; code addresses as signatures are not permitted.

Decoding and translation of cablegrams:
All code cablegrams and cablegrams written in the approved foreign languages will be decoded or translated by censors.

AT SENDER'S RISK.
Suppressions, delays, etc.:
All cablegrams are accepted at the sender's risk and may be stopped, delayed or otherwise dealt with at the discretion of the censor and without notice to the sender. No information respecting the transmission, delivery or other disposal of any cablegram shall be given by paid service, and requests made by mail must be addressed to the telegraph or cable companies and must be passed upon by the censor. Telegrams and post acknowledgment of receipt (P. C. and P. C. P. services) are suspended to all countries.

Information to senders:
Any explanation of a text word or words, etc., required by the censor from the sender in the United States shall be obtained by a collect message from the censor to the sender and by a paid reply from the sender of the cablegram.

Coded cablegrams filed directly at cable offices where a cable censor is stationed, as New York, Key West, Galveston and San Francisco, should be accompanied by a translation. This will expedite the work of the censor and thereby greatly reduce delay.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Vigorous protest against the espionage bill provision designed to empower the President to establish by proclamation prohibitions against publishing information regarding the national defense were voiced yesterday in the House. The provision is contained in the re-drafted section of the measure relating to newspapers which caused such marked objection in the Senate.

Your last chance to buy the Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, ends in 2 or at the very latest 3 weeks from today.

We are close to the day when we must stop taking orders. The few remaining sets of the Britannica are selling so fast that if you want to be sure of getting a set, NOW is the time to order it.

And it is NOW or NEVER if you desire to own this great work in its most convenient form—the popular "Handy Volume" Issue, printed on genuine India paper.

These remaining sets are the very last in the whole world, printed on the famous India paper, that can be offered.

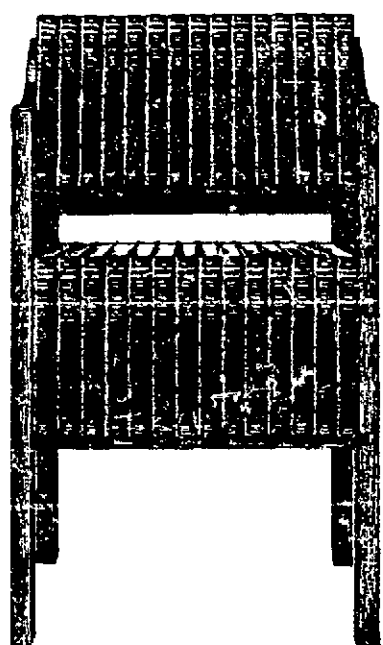

They are printed on the last India paper manufactured before the war made it impossible to get the special kind of flax from Belgium, Ireland and Germany and hemp from Russia for the making of India paper. No more of these raw materials is available, or will be procurable for years after the war, for the making of India paper.

And the only sets of the Britannica for sale anywhere in the world, printed on this beautiful paper, are right here in America.

Orders have greatly increased in the last month—the sales have jumped to an average of more than 2,000 sets a week. This fact makes it certain that the few remaining sets will not last beyond 2 or 3 weeks.

If you know the Britannica, know how useful it will be to you, and are quite sure you should own a set, order it immediately. This is your only assurance of getting it.

When the last day is announced on which we can accept orders with any prospect of filling them, it is reasonable to expect a great rush of orders to come in at the eleventh hour. This was shown last June when a slight increase in the price was made on account of the increase in the cost of bookmaking materials, and we received over 17,000 orders after the last day.

NOW or NEVER!

We are giving you warning NOW to save you any disappointment in never getting one of these very last sets.

In this case when the last set is gone you will not be able to buy a first-hand set of this great library of knowledge, printed on genuine India paper, at any price.

Today in England, Australia and other countries people who failed to buy the Britannica when they had the same chance that you have now are advertising for it and have to pay whatever premium may be put on it by any owner who can be induced to sell his set.

Don't wait until the eleventh hour. Don't put off ordering until "tomorrow." Take the time today to send in the "reserve order" coupon and then you will be sure of getting a set.

You should satisfy yourself that the Britannica will be useful to you in your business or work, increasing your mental efficiency and earning power. You still have a chance to know what the Britannica is and what it will mean to you.

Go at once to

KAHN'S
THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE
Broadway—16th—San Pablo

We don't want any one to order the Britannica unless he is positive that it will be useful to him. We could sell many thousands more sets if more India paper for printing them could be obtained.

Hence we desire that every single one of the remaining sets shall go to men and women who will find the Britannica a practical everyday help.

Go at once and see the different issues. You can leave your order at the same time. But this is YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY—remember, when the last one of these remaining sets is sold you will NEVER AGAIN have an opportunity to buy this valuable work printed on genuine India paper.

Facts about the Britannica Proving its Usefulness

This great work is a complete survey of all knowledge.

Its 29 volumes contain 41,000 separate articles, covering every branch of human thought and activity.

It contains 500,000 indexed facts.

It is cosmopolitan in its viewpoint, unbiased in its presentation and authoritative in every particular.

It is the work of 1500 world-famous scholars and experts, each chosen because of his special knowledge of the subject he wrote about.

It could not be written today because the war would make it impossible to obtain from the contributors, who represented every civilized country, the same calm, unprejudiced view of national and historical subjects.

It deals with knowledge in the broadest, most practical way, making this knowledge usable for any purpose that knowledge is necessary.

It is written in an attractive, entertaining style which appeals alike to the business man, the woman of the home and the college professor.

It is a work that interests children, helping them in their studies and providing the foundation of a practical education.

It is owned and used by more than 175,000 men and women in all vocations, this number including more than 100,000 business men and women.

Only a few sets are left and when these are sold no more can be offered printed on genuine India paper. Therefore, it is

if you desire a set.

Those who cannot go to the store may use this reserve order form, which will be legally binding upon us to reserve one set for you, just the same as if you ordered it in person.

SAVE FEED COST

SANTA CRUZ, May 1.—Poultry raisers of this district are giving away their young chickens rather than feed them at a loss. The high cost of chicken feed has created an unprecedented situation. Smith's Poultry Farm near Lafayette Park is giving away between 400 and 500 cockerels a week. Santa Cruz households are taking them home to feed on table scraps.

OFFICERS CALLED

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Starting today reserve officers of the United States army at fourteen training camps throughout the country preparatory to training candidates for commissions and to train later the vast army of soldiers the government plans to raise. All reserve officers are required to report to their camps by May 8.

WOMEN TO RUN RAILWAY DURING PERIOD OF WAR

SEATTLE, May 1.—"Railroad women" on the lines of the Northern Pacific railroad is the latest development for the aid of recruiting and conservation of labor during the period of war. Today Superintendent J. J. McCulloch, of the Seattle, Tacoma and Auburn terminals, issued a general order instructing all heads of departments where labor is employed to hire women in the future "wherever a man quits."

The women, who will be given clerical positions as well as yard jobs, checking jobs, engine wiping jobs, engine callers, etc., will have the same working conditions as those of the men, the order recited, and receiving the same pay, will be given the same opportunity of advancement. The order of Superintendent McCulloch is not confined to this district only, as the same order is being issued by district superintendents of the Northern Pacific over the entire system.

The new system of employment of women may, it is said, be extended at a later time to engineering or other, engineering.

WAR SOBRIETY

NEW YORK, May 1.—There will be mourning at the bars of 65 heretofore all night restaurants and saloons of New York's erstwhile Gay White Way at 1 o'clock tonight.

The sobering shadow of war will cut off the gaudy lights of the night yet young. By order of Mayor Mitchell all all-night licenses have been rescinded, effective today.

WOMAN WINS AUTO; ONLY ONE IS LEFT

A woman won the seventh Chevrolet automobile that was given away by The TRIBUNE at the Orpheum theater last night.

Mrs. Ida M. Bartle of 1634 Eighth avenue held number 32,603 and was awarded the machine.

Mrs. Bartle had just twenty-eight shares in the Orpheum strong box, and won the car with that small number.

Those who have been striving for these cars that are being given away by The TRIBUNE packed the Orpheum Theater again. The public has begun to wonder when the great line of splendid gifts was going to stop, and they were taking their chances with what might be almost the last car.

And the audience was right.

There will be just one more automobile given away by The TRIBUNE. This is the last week.

LAST WEEK.

Next Monday night the eighth and last car will be given to some lucky TRIBUNE reader.

The crowd that filled the Orpheum theater last night was highly enthusiastic. There was a good show and there was the usual excitement that attends the weekly award of the automobile.

Sheriff Frank Barnett had the drawing in charge, and fearing that he was not able to handle the affair alone, he had Will J. Layman, "Realtor," and Robert MacNaughton as his assistants.

But when it came down to the real work the three big men turned all the work over to little Eugenia Clinchard. The little lady shouldered all the burden of making the drawing and she did it in her own pretty manner.

Little Miss Clinchard has played the fairy godmother several times during this great prize period and she has become a great favorite with the several thousand TRIBUNE readers that pack the Orpheum Theater at these drawings.

A departure was made last night from the usual rule.

It was not the first number drawn that won the prize, but the fifth.

SHERIFF SPEAKS.

When Sheriff Barnett, as master of ceremonies asked how the machine should be awarded the audience cried for the fifth number drawn. The sheriff bowed to the will of the majority, and little Miss Clinchard began her work.

Number one, number two, number three, number four.

Then number five.

It was number 32,603.

Mrs. Bartle answered from the audience, but she was so overcome with excitement that she would not talk to the audience and the gallant sheriff had to speak for her.

The sheriff said himself upon this occasion that it was indeed a great honor for his generosity, the Orpheum for helping in the awards and the Chevrolet automobile.

Mrs. Bartle was given her car at the Orpheum Theater this morning and expressed her gratitude for getting a $625 automobile for twenty-eight TRIBUNE coupons.

Now, prepare for a big week.

There is just one more car to give away.

Every person who attends the Orpheum this week will be given five shares with every ticket purchased.

Tonight is Elks' night at the Orpheum and there are going to be a lot of Elks who will get coupons under this special arrangement.

CITY INAUGURATES SPRING LECTURES

The spring series of public lectures for adults, which is given each year in various school buildings throughout the city for the parents of children and others who are interested in world matters, under the auspices of the city board of education, has been inaugurated for the closing school season.

On Friday, May 4, at the Claremont school, College avenue and Birch court, Miss Roberts, secretary of the city board of education, will give the first lecture, "Life in the World of the Future." The lecture, like all of the series, is illustrated with numerous stereoscopic views.

Arthur L. Street, director of the Institute of current history of the University of California summer session, will lecture on "America and the World During April, 1917," at the Franklin school, Ninth and East, Saturday, May 5.

The final lecture of the series will take place on Friday, May 25, when Frederick J. Mosen will deliver a second lecture, this time on "The Trail of the Spanish Pioneers," at the Claremont school, College avenue and Birch court.

AMATEUR TARS TO CRUISE.

VALLEJO, May 1.—From reports, a large number of members of the Vallejo Yachting and Rowing Club are preparing to make the trip to Napa next Sunday. Many friends of the amateur tars have been invited.

VALLEJO, May 1.—The San Francisco, Napa and Callisto Electric Railway Company is soon to expand a large sum of money on important improvements to its roadbed in Sonoma street which will eliminate conditions that have caused many complaints from property owners in that street. It being the intention of the company to concrete between the rails.

At the meeting of the City Council yesterday Commissioner of Public Works Edward J. Blanco reported that he had received a complaint from F. J. Kinsey, a property owner in Sonoma street, who complained of the broken pavement on each side of the truck, and that while in Napa last Saturday he conferred with General Manager C. E. Brown of the railroad company concerning the condition of the pavement and had learned of the improvement contemplated.
